CONFERENCE TO LAUNCH 'FITNESS FOR WORK: THE MEDICAL ASPECTS' 5TH EDITION

COMPLIMENTARY COPY OF THE NEW EDITION, RRP £49.99, TO ALL DELEGATES

The 'bible' of occupational health, Fitness for Work is the most in-depth and comprehensive resource available on the effects of ill health on employment. Expert authors provide practical guidance on the employment potential of anyone with an illness or disability, as well as examining the art and skills of fitness for work assessment and its ethical framework. Fully revised and updated, Fitness for Work's fifth edition now includes for the first time, important new chapters on work in cancer survivors, health promotion in the workplace, and managing and avoiding sickness absence.

To mark the launch of the new edition, the Faculty of Occupational Medicine is running a conference featuring presentations from a range of eminent speakers. The keynote address will be delivered by the Chief Medical Officer for England, Professor Dame Sally Davies. In addition there will be presentations across a broad range of topics including hearing and vestibular diseases; health promotion in the workplace and mental health.
