FOM/SOM roadshows and webinars about the single organisation

Members will be aware that the Faculty and the Society of Occupational Medicine are discussing the potential for forming together a new single organisation. We are keen to update members on this and to hear your views. As part of this process of consulting and listening, we are setting up a number of opportunities for discussion and webinars which will run between now and the end of October.

Please see the full list for details.

Final places for Faculty training events

There remain just a handful of places for each of the following Faculty events, all based in the Faculty's London office:

18 September - Upper Limb Disorders Professional Briefing Day

(a half day workshop from 09 30 - 13 00 hours on the examination and occupational health management of upper limb disorders)

24 September - Part 1 Health for Health Professionals \(HHP\) training day

25 September - Part 2 Health for Health Professionals \(HHP\) training day
(limited to those who have attended a Part 1 training day)

Both the HHP training days run from 10 00 - 16 00 hours.

Bookings can be made online through the website or by completing the booking form, via the links above.
