

FOM Research Conference

Supported by the Colt Foundation

Programme 28 April 2022

RCP, London NW1 4LE

OPPORTUNITIES IN WORK AND HEALTH RESEARCH

14.30-15.00 REGISTRATION

Enjoy a tea or coffee while you register for the day's events.

15.00-16.00 GARETH O'BRIEN

NIHR Academy Funding and Development Opportunities

Gareth O'Brien, Senior Programme Manager NIHR Academy, explores how you can access funding from the National Institute for Health Research.

This session will include a Q&A.

16.00-16.30

PROFESSOR SIR ANTHONY NEWMAN TAYLOR

Research opportunities with the Colt Foundation

Professor Newman Taylor is Chairman of the Colt Foundation. This charity funds research in environmental and occupation health with a particular interest in research projects that are likely to inform policy and working practices and thereby improve the health and wellbeing of workers and the wider population.

This session will include a Q&A.

16.30-17.00

NIHR FELLOWSHIP HOLDERS

Fellowship holders from the National Institute for Health Research discuss their research in work and health.

17.00-17.30

RESEARCH ACADEMICS

Leading academics in health and work research will give updates on their research interests.

17.30-17.45 CLOSING Q&A

17.45-19.00 DRINKS RECEPTION

The drinks reception is an opportunity for delegates to meet the speakers and ask further questions.