BOHRF - Vacancy for Chief Executive

The British Occupational Health Research Foundation (BOHRF) is advertising for a Chief Executive.

BOHRF is a highly successful niche charity whose mission is to bring employers and researchers together to produce research that will contribute to good employee health and performance at work. Further details of the role can be found at <http://www.facocmed.ac.uk/library/docs/jobcebohrf.doc>.

With best wishes

Nicky Coates
