EPICOH 2011

Message from Dr Katherine Venables FFOM

Dear FOM colleagues

Welcome to Oxford, UK, for the 22nd EPICOH 2011 conference on occupational epidemiology, 7-9 September!

This is the major international conference series on occupational epidemiology but it has never before been held in the UK in its 30-year history. This is a great opportunity for FOM members to present their own work, or discuss the latest occupational epidemiology with others, and the organising committee members are keen to have wide participation from the UK.

The abstract deadline is 14 March 2011; earlybird registration 30 June 2011.

More information about the 2011 Oxford conference is at and on the conference series at <http://www.epicoh.org/>.

With best wishes

Nicky Coates
Chief Executive
